Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED directing the courtroom clerk to update Mother's address in ICIS as stated this date on the record in open court.

Pursuant to agreement of the parties,

IT IS ORDERED that the parties shall share joint legal custody of the minor children.

- A. Each parent is entitled to full and unrestricted access to all medical, dental, prescription and health related records of the children and may secure information from and consult with all health care professionals involved with the minor children. Each party shall keep the other parent informed of the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all health care providers of the children.
- B. Each parent is entitled to full and unrestricted access to all school records, teachers and school officials involved in the children's schooling.
- C. Both parents shall be listed and identified as contact persons on all records.
- D. In the event of any emergency or urgent circumstance involving the children, the other parent shall be notified as soon as is reasonably possible.
- E. Each parent shall have the right to attend and participate in school, extra-curricular, conference, organized activity or other similar event in which parents are routinely invited or permitted to attend.
- F. Each parent shall keep the other apprised of his/her home address, home telephone number, employer and address, work telephone number and, if applicable, cellular telephone number and e-mail address.
- G. It is in the furtherance of the children's best interests for the parents to confer and for the views of each parent to be considered. There shall be communication between the parents to address day-to-day and more significant issues. They shall develop their communication by utilizing e-mail as their primary method for communication. This shall afford a method that ensures both accountability and verifiability. Both parties shall maintain and regularly review their e-mail accounts. They shall each respond in a timely fashion, even if such response is merely to acknowledge the receipt of information. Each should print copies of all e-mails received and sent so that if an issue arises in the future that has been addressed through e-mail, each party shall have proof as to what was communicated.

- H. It is anticipated that parental decisions shall be required for major issues in raising the children and in meeting their on-going needs. If/when they arise, the parents shall address the issues. Each shall give good faith consideration to the views of the other. If the decision involves medical or schooling issues, the parties may further elect to seek input from treating physicians or educators. Both parents shall be provided with such input. If the parents cannot agree after making a good faith effort to come to an agreed upon decision, the issue shall be presented to the Court through either party filing the required pleadings.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that Father shall have parenting time with the children every other weekend from Friday at 6:00 p.m. until Sunday at 6:00 p.m. The parties can modify this schedule if they reach agreement. The holiday parenting schedule and summer vacation shall be as can be agreed upon by the parties.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED each party shall retain as his or her sole and separate property any furniture, furnishings, appliances, tools, art work, collectibles, and related personal property in that party's possession. Each party shall retain as his or her sole and separate property any disclosed savings, checking or other financial account held in that party's name.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that each party shall be responsible for any debt in his or her name.

Discussion is held regarding child support. Based upon the Court's calculation,

IT IS ORDERED that Father shall pay $200.00 per month to Mother as and for child support, commencing September 1, 2010. All payments shall be made through the Support Clearinghouse via an automatic Order of Assignment issued this date. Father is advised that until such time as the Order of Assignment becomes effective, Father has an affirmative obligation to pay the child support directly to the Support Clearinghouse.

All obligations for child support for each shall terminate when the children each attain the age of 18 years or is otherwise emancipated, but in the event any child attains the age of 18 years while attending high school, support shall continue to be provided during the period in which said child is actually attending high school but only until the child reaches 19 years of age. Provisions for health insurance and non-insured health expenses for the children, as provided for below, shall be deemed to be additional child support and shall be enforceable as such.

Pursuant to A.R.S. §25-503(I), the right of a parent, guardian or custodian to receive child support payments as provided herein vests as each installment falls due. Each vested child support installment is enforceable as a final judgment by operation of law.
